Allemande.

The image displays the first page of a musical score for the Allemande from J.S. Bach's Solo Partita No. 2 in D minor, BWV 1004. The score is written for violin and consists of eight staves of music. The key signature is D minor (two flats) and the time signature is common time (C). The music is characterized by its flowing, melodic lines and intricate rhythmic patterns. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature. The piece features a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. There are several instances of triplets and slurs throughout the score, indicating complex rhythmic and phrasing elements. The notation includes various accidentals (sharps, flats, naturals) and dynamic markings, though the latter are not explicitly labeled in this view. The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of the eighth staff.
