

LORD HEAR THE VOICE OF MY COMPLAINT (PSALM 5)

Metrical transformation of the psalm by Nahum Tate.
Published 1840 in Charles Coventry's "The National Psalmist".

Editor: Christoph Lahme

1. Lord, hear the voice of my complaint, ac -
 2. For Thou the wrongs that I sus - tain, canst
 3. The sland' ring tongue, o God of truth, by 5

 cept my se - cret pray'. On Thee a - lone, my nev - er, Lord ap - prove; Who from the sa - cred Thee shall be de - stroy'd; Whor hat'st a - like the 10

 King and - God, will I for help re - pair. Thou dwell - ing in - place, all e - vil dost re - move. Not man in blood, and in de - ceit em - ply'd. But 15

in long when the shall the morn stub - born bound - less voice fools grace shall re - main, un - hear and me, to 19

with the dawn - ing day, to Thee de - vout - ly pun - ish'd in the view: All such as act - un - Thy lov'd courts re - store, on Thee I'll fix - my 24

I'll look up, to The de - vout - ly pray.
right - ous things, Thy ven - geance shall pur sue.
long - ing eyes, and hum - bly there a - dore.